Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Matthew Henry (1662 -1714) was a British Non-Conformist minister and author. Henry s commentaries are primarily exegetical, dealing with the scripture text as presented, with his prime intention being explanation, for practical and devotional purposes. While not being a work of textual research, for which Henry recommended Matthew Poole s Synopsis Criticorum, Henry s Exposition gives the result of a critical account of the original as of his time, with practical application. It was considered sensible and stylish, a commentary for devotional purposes. Famous evangelical Protestant preachers such as George Whitefield and Charles Spurgeon used and heartily commended the work, with Whitefield reading it through four times - the last time on his knees. Spurgeon stated, Every minister ought to read it entirely and carefully through once at least. Perhaps his best-known quotation is about the relationship between men and women, from the story of the creation of Eve, in the Book of Genesis: the woman was made of a rib out of the side of Adam; not made out of his head to rule over him, nor...
