Paul and Judy Leonard have been these things to me for more than 50 years and I have always wanted to know the source of their incredible drive to serve others. Pauls book speaks to my wonder. By opening his and Judys lives, he inspired me to do better sharing the gifts God gave me. But his description of his long, sincere, and intense search for a church to accommodate his deep faith and call to service is profoundly unsettling and should be mandatory reading for every religious leader and anyone else who cares about the future of organized religion. DG Martin, Host of UNC-TVs North Carolina Bookwatch Paul Leonard is a saint. Hugh McColl A well-told story of a life well-lived, reminding those of us in the church to be church outside the church.
