Not illustrated. 1858 Excerpt: . from scenes of revival, to mingle in a revival progressing in the place of meeting. This wave of blessing is rolling over the land. Already it has reached every Presbytery within our bounds; and there is scarcely a church that has not felt, in some degree, its cheering influence. One of our largest Presbyteries says: The reports which reach us from our churches are such, that our emotions find most appropriate utterance in the words of the Psalmist: When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing. Then said they among the heathen, the Lord hath done great things for them, the Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad. There is not, within our bounds, a single church in which the tokens of the divine presence have not been distinctly seen; although in several there has been no general awakening and turning to God. In many, the work has been one of unwonted power. ORIGIN OF THE WORK. This Pentecostal season manifested itself at an early period of the present year, in a remarkable degree, in the city of New-York. This great heart of the country now became the fountain of religious life, sending out its currents to the extremities. Its influence spread most rapidly. Individuals from the east and the west, from the north and the south, came to this business centre,...
