Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1912 edition. Excerpt: . brief expression regarding our citizens of foreign birth. I have always entertained the view that one of the contributing causes to the many-sided and rapid development of our great country has been the cosmopolitan character of its citizenship and the eagerness with which those not native to the country have imbibed American ideals and the loyalty with which they have supported American laws and institutions. That this is true in my own State I have had occasion many times to observe and to comment upon. I suppose that no city in the country has a more varied foreign population than Chicago, and in no city is the citizen of foreign birth more highly esteemed or his share in the advancement of social and industrial welfare more generously recognized. Trusting that the good work in which your association is engaged in behalf of our foreign born citizenship may prosper exceedingly, I am, Very truly yours, CHARLES S. DENEEN. Mr. Lows N. HAMMERLING, American Association of Foreign Language Newspapers, 61 Park Row, New York City. EXECUTIVE OFFICES STATE or I/ISSOURI Crrr or JEFFERSON City of Jefferson, January 30, 1912. Mr. LOUIS N. HAMMEBLING, President, American Association of Foreign Language Newspapers, New York. DEAR Sm: I have received your letter of January 15th, together with a copy of your Bulletin in regard to the Third Annual Convention of your Association, which I have read with interest. The existence of your Association is an indication of the...
