Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Life A glade at the foot of a wooded hill shrouded in darkness. Music is heard, and the figure of the Sower is seen, suffused with lights, high on the hillside. The Sower Now hear ye, O Life! I am the Sower, come to sow more life. I am the constant, the timeless. One little moment past, sowed I in the void - I sowed star dust, And from that misty seed, quick with life, The round earth shaped beneath me; Crag, valley, sea, mountain and vale, The new sphere swung to its appointed path. [The humming of a distant chorus is heard from the darkness. Then sowed I other seed, so urgent That the dead earth pulsed to my tread With vine and flower and fruit. One little moment since and all these mighty growths, These purple pillars, draped in shadowy green, Were but seed, leaving my hand. Sowed I seed of milky fire mist, Ever more seed, And life spawned upon itself - About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of...
