Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Some Economic Aspects of War: A Lecture Delivered Before the Army War College at Washington, D. C., April 11, 1913 This letter, which I present with much misgiving, is the result of a brief conversation which I had with Col. Greble, Capt. McCoy, and a few others one afternoon last fall when I happened to come upon them in the midst of a military discussion. Some joking remarks were made on the assumption that, as a political economist, I would be, naturally, oppose to any program for an increased military organization, which was the topic of conversation. To justify myself in such company, I began to give some of the economic arguments in favor of a strong military organization, and some days afterwards I was invited by Gen. Wood to address the officers of the military college. I was so flattered by the invitation that I accepted without much thought, and now feel much embarrassed at having done so. It is hardly possible that there is any problem regarding war or military armaments with which...
