Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It is very important to know what we mean when we say "I believe". Especially when we say, "I believe in God." How does that differ from the heathen viewpoint or the viewpoint of other faiths? What do they mean when they say, "We believe in God"? How does that differ from our declaration? It is vital to know WHAT we believe and why we believe it so that we are not left at the mercy of cults and human philosophy. It is not enough just to declare, "I believe in God" and then to be selective about WHAT we believe. We have to believe the whole counsel of God as revealed in the Holy Bible. "There is only one God, brethren, and we learn about Him only from sacred Scriptures. It is, therefore, our duty to become acquainted with what Scripture proclaims and to investigate its teaching thoroughly. The Early Church believed this and penned a brief statement of faith called "THE APOSTLES CREED" during the 6th Century AD. It is an excellent summary of the Christian faith based on the scriptures in a series of twelve short statements of faith. Its purpose is to ground believers in their faith. Written statements of faith became necessary in the early days of the church because of the rise of heresies as people made an attempt to "explain" God. Baptism candidates were asked to accept the simple rule of faith as their personal confession. These creeds are not a formula, but a confession of faith declared as an expression of faith in an act of commitment to God and the surrender of the will and...
