What a truly magical little book - the sort you need on your shelf so you can pick it up again and again as it helps you to remember the important things in life - especially love. It s a must for any age: the bedtime story , the lost teenager seeking sanctuary , the over-worked stressed adult or the oldie enjoying the good old days! This book went into my soul and beyond: heartfelt, sad, loving, memorable, enlightening. This is a beautiful book - the language is rich and evocative and the story immensely touching and insightful whilst exploring themes of love and loss from different perspectives of the adults and the child . and the elephants. There is also a deeper wisdom to be found between the lines. A heart-warming tale that felt so real. I loved the writing...
