Accountability Office, 2011 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)696604435 Subject: Electric utilities -- United States -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . approve cost recovery for electric investments. With respect to smart grid initiatives, individual utilities can choose to invest in smart grid devices on their own. However, as noted above, depending on the type of utility and where cost recovery is sought, either FERC, the state PUC, or another entity will have authority for deciding whether to allow that utility to recover the costs of smart grid investments from customers. State and federal authorities also play key roles with respect to reliability, which can be affected by a systems cybersecurity. State regulators generally have authority to oversee the reliability of the local distribution system. The North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC) is the federally designated U. S. Electric Reliability Organization overseen by FERC. NERC has responsibility for conducting reliability assessments and enforcing mandatory standards to ensure the reliability of the bulk power system - a term that refers to facilities and control systems necessary for operating the electric...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
