Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Purpose, Sue Fitzmaurice breaks down that vague word into practical, logical advice. If there s a part of your mind that doesn t believe you have a purpose, it will have a healthy argument here to believe you truly do. Purpose delves into the mind to discover where it may be blocked and how to nudge it forward. Excellent advice and well worth the read. Doe Zantamata, author of Happiness in Your Life Purpose is the kind of book you wish you had had when you were starting out in life. Fortunately, it s never too late to live your purpose. Sue Fitzmaurice provides us with an insightful as well as inspirational road map for the journey. Eleanor Brown, author of Mile 9 Many writers presenting thoughts about worthiness and finding one s purpose sound lofty and grandiose, like they re preaching from a pedestal. Not so with Sue. She presents complicated issues in an intelligent, clear cut manner coupled with an open approach that makes the journey to connecting to one s higher self and finding life s purpose easily accessible. Personally meaningful and great read. Well done! Ivy Tobin, actress and author of My Life as a Doormat Written in Sue s inimitable style, with clarity, humour and humility, this book is must read for anyone endeavouring to seek a greater understanding of how to live life with a greater sense of gusto. No matter what your age, status or background this little book with a big heart gets to the root of how to live a more fulfilling and purposeful life no matter where you are in your journey. Purpose is practical, insightful, down...
