Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address Delivered by Edward Atkinson: At the Opening of the Second Annual Fair of the New England Manufacturers and Mechanics Institute, in Boston, Wednesday, September 6, 1882 Mr. President, Gentlemen of the New England Manufacturers and Mechanics Institute, Ladies and Gentlemen, - I have been asked to open this Fair with an address which shall indicate the purposes and methods of its work, as they are defined in the minds of those who founded this Association: I will come directly to the subject without taking up your time with any further introduction. I shall speak without much regard to the danger of being dry or abstruse, but will endeavor, as far as in me lies, to present thoughts which will be, at least in some degree, commensurate with the importance of the occasion. I shall not hesitate to reiterate some statements to which I have previously called attention, but which can hardly be too often presented. I shall spare you statistics as much as possible: they will be found in the notes if this address...

This publication will not be simple to get started on looking at but quite entertaining to learn. It generally fails to cost an excessive amount of. You will not feel monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogues are for about if you ask me).
