[...]years of non-communication had not been spent in military stasis, at least not for the West. Sixty percent of the federal budget was still being spent for defense. Powerful new weapons were still being developed, and old ones pronounced obsolete. The seventh John Smith had even conspired to have a conspiracy against himself in Argentina, with resulting civil war, so that the weapons could be tested under actual battle conditions-for the region had been overpopulated anyway. The results had been comforting-but John the Sixteenth wanted to know more about what the enemy was doing.[.].
